Tenement block. 1895-9. Architect Reginald Minton Taylor of London County Council. Red brick with some grey brick banding. Slated mansard to eaves. 4 storeys plus roof storey with additional storey set in gable; brown glazed bricks to ground floor. Slightly projecting centre and ends, the centre of 4 bays, with tall decorative gable. Original shop fronts to ground floor with segmental headed entrances and segmental headed plate glass windows in timber frames with smaller decorative lights above; small panes to semi-glazed doors. Main entrance to block square headed with small panes and glazing bars to fanlight and triangular pediment over. Projecting pilaster strips at intervals rising through first, second and third floors, and paired to projecting centre of block. Brick cornice above third floor; further brick pilasters to central gable. Segmental headed windows to first and second floors; square headed windows to third floor and to gable windows (the outer ones with arched reveals having decorative stone voussoirs and stuccoed tympana). Dormers square headed, alternately with pediments to right side. Sashes, some glazing bars. An integral part of the Boundary St Estate. An important early LCC estate (qv Tower Hamlets).
