

1.
5013

DUNLOE STREET E2

(South Side)

Church of St Chad, Haggerston.
(Formerly listed as St Chad's Church Nichols Square)

TQ 3383 30/196

3.1.50.

A

GV

2.
1868 by James Brooks. Cruciform church with aisles. Central bellcote h tall, pyramidal leaded roof. Red brick with stone dressings. Very high proportions, high pitched slated roof. C13 style with lancets and plate tracery. Wheel windows in transepts. Apsidal east end, with north-east vestry under pyramidal roof, south-east chapel with apsidal end. Inside 3-bay nave, west bay now partitioned off.
Characteristic
stout, low round piers of stone. Red brick interior with stone arcade soffits. Very tall chancel arch to rib-vaulted chancel with stone ribs, brick panels. Wrought iron screen on low stone wall. Carved reredos with crucifixion and saints. Chancel piers very stout with modified waterleaf capitals. Grey limestone font in C13 style.

The Church and Vicarage of St Chad form a group .