Copy of the Statutory Notice published in the Hackney Gazette 25th June 2009

These documents, representations forms, publicity and a statement of the representation procedure, have been made available from Monday to Friday 8 30 am to 5 30 pm at Hackney Town Hall, the reception area of the Neighbourhoods and Regeneration office, address above; and at the Council's libraries.

An advertisement to the above effect appears in the local newspapers: Hackney Gazette, together with a small press article, on 25th June 2009, Hamodia (newspaper for the Orthodox Jewish community) on 1 July 2009 and Hackney Today on 6 July 2009 giving details of the representation procedure. A photocopy of the actual advertisement which appeared in the Hackney Gazette is enclosed.

The documents listed above have also been placed on the Council's web site at:

<http://www.hackney.gov.uk/core-strategy.htm>

and on the Limehouse consultation portal at:

<http://hackney-consult.limehouse.co.uk>

I can also confirm that emails have been sent advising our specific consultees and PINS of the representation procedure, and attaching an electronic copy of the proposed submission documents itemised above, and that we have emailed the general consultation bodies on our list of consultees to advise them of the representations procedure and the availability of the documents.

Publication of these documents for the representation process marks a significant milestone in the production of Hackney's Local Development. I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your active engagement, providing us with support, guidance and assistance both with the preparation processes and your comments on the earlier iterations.

Yours sincerely,

John Hodson
Interim Head of Policy & Strategy
