Stoke Newington Town Hall

Stoke Newington Town Hall is located on Stoke Newington Church Street, in an attractive location, next to Clissold Park. This Art Deco, Grade II listed building provides two unique spaces for community use and private hire - the Council Chamber and Assembly Hall. The venue will be re-opened to the public on 1st February 2010 and bookings will be taken from 14th September 2009.

Council chamber

The Council Chamber retains many of its original features, including a stunning domed ceiling, vaulted galleries, Australian walnut timber panelling and ornate gold cornicing. Leading up to the Chamber is an impressive sweeping staircase, in the Art Deco style, ideal for creating a real sense of occasion.

This beautiful space is ideal for meetings and smaller functions, with 156 m<sup>2</sup> of space (12.5m by 12.5m). It can accommodate up to 53 people seated or 70 standing. In addition, a further 30 people can be seated in the balcony overlooking the Chamber.

Assembly Hall

The Assembly Hall has a sprung Canadian Maple dance floor, a stage, and dressing rooms. The space is ideal for music, dancing and performances, as well as for private parties, ceremonies and receptions. The Hall can accommodate a total of 550 people, and provides 420 m<sup>2</sup> of space (20.5m by 20.5m).

In the Hall, up to 420 people can be seated theatre-style, or 300 people seated banqueting-style at 30 round tables (160 x cm in diameter).

The Assembly Hall balcony can accommodate a further 94 people, seated theatre-style.

The bar area has a maximum capacity of 60 people standing. The Bar can be booked with the Assembly Hall. There is also a cloakroom area which can be booked for use.

Kitchen
