

SHOREDITCH HIGH STREET E1

1.
5013

(West Side)

-----
Nos 180 to 182 (consec)
(National Westminster Bank)

iQ 3382 35/564
II

2.
4-storey building in Italianate style having a heavy cornice with modillions and long brackets interspersed with paterae. York stone front, 6 windows wide. Each storey treated differently Top floor has round arched windows with moulded architraves and cable moulding; and projecting bracketed stone cills with cast iron guards. 2nd floor windows framed in quasi-Corinthian Order with pediments. 1st floor rounded windows in moulded architraves with scrolled keystones within full Corinthian Order with attached columns, guilloche moulding in frieze and modillion cornice. Ground floor has projecting bracketed cornice resting on quasi-Corinthian granite pilasters and a granite plinth. Iron window guards. Round arched entrance at right. The building was erected between 1865 and 1880 and is partly of steel frame construction.