Policy on lost or stolen Blue Car Badges

Blue Car Badges are a valuable benefit for people with disabilities who qualify for them. We expect you to keep your badge safe and make sure that it is not lost or used by anyone else. We can replace your badge if you can prove that it was lost or stolen.

Related procedures

- 1 If you ask us to replace your badge because it has been lost or stolen, you must fill in an application for a replacement Blue Car Badge. If your badge has been stolen, you must send us a copy of the report that you have made to the police. We will then check this information with the police.
- 2 Unless extraordinary circumstances apply, we will not replace your badge more than twice.
- 3 If your badge has been stolen and you have:
 - sent us a copy of the report that you have made to the police; and
 - we have checked this out with the police;we will then try to give you the next available appointment.
- 4 If you have reported your badge as lost, we will not issue a replacement badge until 14 days after we have received your application, giving you an opportunity to find it.
- 5 If you falsely report that your badge has been lost or stolen, you will no longer be eligible for a Blue Car Badge.
- 6 It is illegal to deliberately misuse your badge, allow anyone else to use it or sell it to another person. If our Parking Enforcement Officers report that your badge is being used illegally, we will withdraw your badge and take legal action against you.
