

Hackney Design Awards 2004

Hackney's first Design Awards resulted in:

- 6 winners in the main awards category
- 4 highly commended photographs winning the photography competition
- A film made by documentary film-makers and students providing a visual statement of Hackney's built environment

The winning schemes

An awards ceremony to announce the winners was held at the Hackney Empire on Tuesday 7 December 2004. Awards were presented by Sir Richard Rogers and Victoria Thornton (Director, Open House), and Mayor Jules Pipe. The Mayor's opening speech described how this scheme plays an important part in Hackney's Community Strategy to grow and develop into a thriving and balanced community. It is a key example of how we are building on the strengths of our communities to make Hackney a great place for people to live and work.
